Dear Marianne,

You know I've always considered you a swell girl. Marianne, thanks for all your helpful advise and allowing me to cry on your shoulder. I know that you will have whatever your heart desires, because there isn't a finer or more deserving girl. Gosh but I'm really looking forward to the times ahead we will have together. Love.

Diane Smith

Marianne,

Best of Luck Always to a very fine girl. One who I have not known very well, but one who I have thought a lot of. I hope to be able to see you again next year. Keep cool until then.

Your friend always,

Chuck

It has certainly been a pleasure to have you as a friend this year. We have really had some good times. I'll be thinking of you next year when I'm struggling down here at 'Ol Ga. Southern and your racking up all that money down in Savannah.!!!

Good luck always,

Ann

Marianne,

We have had a great year and I have enjoyed knowing you very much this year. There is one thing that astounding me about you and that is how you ever balanced that glass of water

ALMA MATER

Down among the murmuring pine trees
Where old nature smiles,
GSC holds up a standard
Known for miles and miles.

Lift the chorus. Speed it onward,
Ne'er her standard fail,
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
GSC, All Hail.

From the blue and broad Atlantic,
Balmy breezes blow,
Wafting far GSC's Spirit
May she ever grow.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

GEORGIA SOUTHERN COLLEGE

formerly

GEORGIA TEACHERS COLLEGE
COLLEGEBORO, GEORGIA
SUBURB OF STATESBORO

OFFICE OF
THE PRESIDENT

To the Students of GEORGIA SOUTHERN COLLEGE:

This letter is the first one in which I have addressed the students of Georgia Southern College. For those of you who have been here for one to four years it seems somewhat strange to call the college by a new name, but in my case I have been saying Georgia Teachers College for twenty years. Of course, I find it difficult at times to answer the telephone and say "Georgia Southern College." While there is a feeling of sadness in changing the name, I also find myself feeling good because the time has come in the college's development to have a name appropriate to the broadened program, which we are offering.

In the years to come, as you relive your experiences by looking at the REFLECTOR, I am sure you will also feel a sense of pride due to the fact that you were here while many of the important changes were being made. Many college graduates come to treasure the Annual more and more as the years pass by. It is my hope that the 1960 edition of the REFLECTOR will continue to bring to you many hours of enjoyment.

Sincerely yours,

Zach S. Henderson

CLASSES

Singers, and saints and sages –
  In the fame of a name we trust,
But time will cover our pages,
  As even our tombs, with dust.
For here in the school's shadows,
  Where the famed and fameless be,
I roam in forgotten meadows,
  With the centuries over me!

GEORGE — ANNE

All of the latest news and current trends in thought are brought to you each week by the GEORGE-ANNE. These are the people who have made this possible each week.

Pictured above are the business manager, Albert Burke, and editor, Roberta Halpern, as they check advertising copy before the GEORGE-ANNE goes to press.

At the right Midge Lasky, news editor, and Roberta put the finishing touches on the weekly newspaper. In the background is Mr. Leodel Coleman, who publishes the GEORGE-ANNE each week.

REFLECTOR

Is it possible for one person, or a small group of people, to truly record the intangible world of memories that surround each individual during a year of his life? We don't think so; yet this was our job. We tried hard, we worked long . . . we bring you the

ATHLETICS

If you've tried and have not won,
Never stop for crying;
All that's great and good is done
Just by patient trying.
If by easy work you beat,
Who the more will prize you?
Gaining victory from defeat,—
That's the test that tries you!

SPECIAL EVENTS

FEATURES

Pretty good world if you take it all round—
Pretty good world, good people!
Better be on than under the ground—
Pretty good world, good people!
Better be here where the skies are as blue
As the eyes of your sweetheart a-smilin' at you—
Better than lyin' 'neath daisies and dew—
Pretty good world, good people!

HOMECOMING

In the pictures at the top of this page, the beauty of Homecoming will be recalled as the floats and Beauty Revue are brought to mind.
